

THE GALLERY getting the HANG OF IT

Visual artists and members of the Arts Council of Surrey are celebrating the opening of the new community art gallery in Newton where local artists can exhibit. For many years they received exposure at the Studio Theatre at the Surrey Arts Centre. But, with Surrey's rapid population growth, it is often not available and beyond the budgets of many smaller community groups.

To ensure optimum use of this wonderful new gallery space, we plan to have monthly shows by visual artists, potters, photographers and 3D forms created by a diverse range of artists who will be able to exhibit both in solo and group shows. All artists will have their work juried by Gallery Exhibition Committee members Becky McMahon, Dawn Govier, Marc Pelech and Wendy Mould prior to acceptance.

The Exhibit Openings will take place on the first Friday evening of each month for each new monthly display. It is hoped that these opening will be popular events where patrons can gather and admire and discuss the works. Artwork will be for sale and a portion of the sales will be donated to help support the new art centre in Newton.

Our beautiful new gallery has adjustable spot lighting and is large enough for small groups to hold meetings. The 22' x 24' space is large enough to accommodate pairings of two emerging artist shows if necessary.

We invite you to come every month to celebrate the unique variety and talent of Surrey artists and enjoy the new community art gallery.
